Asian Philosophy is an international journal concerned with the philosophical traditions of the East. The purpose of the journal is to bring these rich and varied traditions to a worldwide academic audience. It publishes articles in the central philosophical areas of metaphysics, philosophy of mind, epistemology, logic, moral and social philosophy, as well as in applied philosophical areas such as aesthetics and jurisprudence. It also publishes articles comparing Eastern and Western philosophical traditions.

Editorial correspondence, including manuscripts for submission and books for review, should be addressed to Dr Indira Mahalingam and Dr Brian Carr, Asian Philosophy, Theology Department, Exeter University, Queen's Building, The Queen's Drive, Exeter EX4 4QH, UK. Details concerning the submission and preparation of articles can be found on the inside back cover of each issue.

Asian Philosophy is currently abstracted in: The Philosopher's Index; Humanities Abstracts; Humanities Index; Multicultural Education Abstracts; Periodica Islamica; British Humanities Index; DARE Databank and UNESCO CD-Rom and on line via ECHO; Arts & Humanities Citation Index®; Research Alert®; Current Contents®/Arts & Humanities.
